SUPPLEMENTARY CONVENTION OF EXTRADITION BETWEEN THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA AND THE REPUBLIC OF COLOMBIA

The United States of America and the Republic of Colombia, being desirous of enlarging the list of crimes on account of which extradition may be granted under the Convention concluded between the two countries on May 7, 1888,¹ with a view to the better administration of justice and the prevention of crimes in their respective territories and jurisdictions, have resolved to conclude a supplementary convention for this purpose and have appointed as their Plenipotentiaries, to wit:

The President of the United States of America: Spruille Braden, Ambassador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary in Colombia; and

The President of the Republic of Colombia: Luis López de Mesa, Minister for Foreign Relations,

Who, after having exhibited to each other respective full powers, which were found to be in due and proper form, have agreed to and concluded the following articles:

ARTICLE I

The High Contracting Parties agree that the following crimes are added to the list of crimes numbered 1 to 12 in Article II of the Convention of Extradition concluded between the United States of America and the Republic of Colombia on May 7, 1888; that is to say:
