9 Stat. 830; Treaty Series 317<sup>2</sup>

The United States of America on the one part and His Majesty the King of Saxony on the other part being equally desirous of removing the restrictions which exist in their territories upon the acquisition and transfer of property by their respective citizens and subjects, have agreed to enter into negotiations for this purpose.

For the attainment of this desirable object the President of the United States of America has conferred full powers on Henry Wheaton their Envoy extraordinary and Minister plenipotentiary at the Court of His Majesty the King of Prussia, and His Majesty the King of Saxony upon John de Minckwitz His Minister of State, Lieutenant General, Envoy extraordinary and Minister plenipotentiary at the said Court, who, after having exchanged their
