13 Stat. 685; Treaty Series 57

WHEREAS a Convention for the adjustment of claims was concluded between the United States of America and the Republic of New Granada in the city of Washington on the 10th September 1857,¹ which Convention as afterwards amended by the contracting parties was proclaimed by the President of the United States on the 8th November 1860;

AND WHEREAS the Joint Commission organized under the authority conferred by the preceding mentioned Convention did fail, by reason of uncontrollable circumstances to decide all the claims laid before them under its provisions within the time to which their proceedings were limited by the 4th Article thereof;

The United States of America and the United States of Colombia—the latter representing the late Republic of New Granada—are desirous that the time originally fixed for the duration of the Commission should be so extended as to admit the examination and adjustment of such claims as were presented to but not settled by the Joint Commission aforesaid and to this end have named Plenipotentiaries to agree upon the best mode of accomplishing this object, that is to say, the President of the United States of America, William H. Seward, Secretary of State of the United States of America, and the President of the United States of Colombia, Senor Manuel Murillo, Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary of the United States of Colombia;

Who, having exchanged their full powers, have agreed as follows:—
