No. 149

GUATEMALA, June 10, 1925

MR. SECRETARY:

I have the honor to confirm conversations with Your Excellency in which it was agreed that the Government of the United States will, from the first day of July, 1925, collect no fee for visaing passports or executing applications therefor in the case of citizens of Guatemala desiring to visit the United States (including the insular possessions) who are not "immigrants" as defined in the Immigration Act of the United States of 1924;³ namely, "(1) a government official, his family, attendants, servants, and employees, (2) an alien visiting the United States temporarily as a tourist or temporarily for business or pleasure, (3) an alien in continuous transit through the United States, (4) an alien lawfully admitted to the United States who later goes in transit from one part of the United States to another through foreign contiguous territory, (5) a bona fide alien seaman serving as such on a vessel arriving at a port of the United States and seeking to enter temporarily the United States solely in the pursuit of his calling as a seaman, and (6) an alien entitled to enter the United States solely to carry on trade under and in pursuance of the provisions of a present existing treaty of commerce and navigation"; and that from the same date the Government of Guatemala will collect no fee for visaing passports or executing application therefor in the case of non-immigrant citizens of the United States, or like classes, desiring to visit or leave Guatemala; nor will the Government of Guatemala collect from any citizen of the United States any fee for issuing or visaing any document of entry or of departure other than a passport, or executing application therefor, insofar as the Government of the United States reciprocates in that respect.
