D.G.A.E. Nº. 895

BUENOS AIRES, September 19, 1946.

MR. AMBASSADOR:

It affords me pleasure to address Your Excellency with reference to the negotiations recently concluded between the representatives of the International Emergency Food Council and the respective Argentine authorities.

In accordance with the quota assigned to your country by the International Council functioning in Washington, the Argentine Government pledges itself to sell to it the following products:

32,000 tons of linseed oil, and
900 tons of rapeseed oil.

Those products, at the prices stipulated in the above-mentioned negotiations, plus the corresponding costs of 4% for oils, represent a total of 63,585,600 Argentine pesos, which will be paid in United States dollars by the Government so worthily represented by Your Excellency.

Likewise, your Embassy will designate the exporter or exporters to take charge of the respective shipments according to the list drawn up for the purpose by the Central Bank of the Republic.

I present my compliments to Your Excellency with my most distinguished consideration.

JUAN ATILIO BRAMUGLIA

His Excellency

GEORGE MESSERSMITH,

Ambassador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary of the United States of America.
