ADDITIONAL ARTICLES

To the General Convention of Friendship, Commerce and Navigation concluded at Washington on the twenty-sixth day of April, 1826, between the United States of America and his Majesty the King of Denmark

The United States of America and his Majesty the King of Denmark, wishing to favor their mutual commerce by affording, in their ports, every necessary assistance to their respective vessels, the undersigned Plenipotentiaries, being duly empowered for that purpose, have agreed upon the following additional articles to the General Convention of friendship, Commerce and navigation, concluded at Washington on the twenty-sixth day of April, 1826,³ between the contracting parties.

ARTICLE 1

The respective Consuls General, Consuls, Vice Consuls and Commercial Agents, shall have the right as such to sit as judges and arbitrators in such differences as may arise, either at sea or in port, between the Captain, officers and crew of the vessels belonging to the nation whose interests are committed to their charge, particularly in reference to the adjustment of wages and the execution of contracts, without the interference of the local authorities,
