No. 195

EXCELLENCY:

I have the honor to inform Your Excellency that, following conversations recently held between representatives of the Governments of Brazil, the United Kingdom and the United States of America in regard to the price to be paid for the exportable surplus of the 1944–1945 Brazilian rice crop and the extension of the existing Agreement to the 1945–1946 crop, the Government of the United States, acting jointly with the Government of the United Kingdom, agrees to pay an increase of 10 percent on the basic price which was established for the exportable surplus of the 1943–1944 Brazilian rice crop of specified types and qualities, under the terms set forth in the Schedule incorporated in the exchange of notes of December 21, 1943<sup>1</sup> establishing an Agreement for the purchase and sale of rice.

2. The Government of the United States agrees also that the maximum allowable content of broken rice, known as “brokens”, referred to in Clause number 1, captioned “Types and Qualities”, of the Schedule which constitutes Appendix number 1 to the exchange of notes of December 21, 1943, shall be increased from 10 per cent to 20 per cent.

3. All the terms and conditions of the Agreement established by the exchange of notes of December 21, 1943 and enclosures thereto shall remain unchanged, save for the above stated modifications in the basic price and in the percentage of broken rice.

4. Moreover, the Government of the United States agrees that all the terms and conditions of the Agreement established by the exchange of notes
