46 Stat. 2841; Treaty Series 828

The President of the United States of America and His Majesty the King of Iceland and Denmark

Determined to prevent so far as in their power lies any interruption in the peaceful relations that have always existed between the United States and Iceland;

Desirous of reaffirming their adherence to the policy of submitting to impartial decision all justiciable controversies that may arise between the two countries; and

Eager by their example not only to demonstrate their condemnation of war as an instrument of national policy in their mutual relations, but also to hasten the time when the perfection of international arrangements for the pacific settlement of international disputes shall have eliminated forever the possibility of war among any of the Powers of the world;

Have decided to conclude a new treaty of arbitration enlarging the scope and obligations of the arbitration convention signed at Washington on May 18, 1908,¹ which expired by limitation on March 29, 1914, and for that purpose they have appointed as their respective Plenipotentiaries

The President of the United States of America: Henry L. Stimson, Secretary of State of the United States; and

His Majesty the King of Iceland and Denmark: Mr. Constantin Brun, Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary at Washington;
