47 Stat. 1862; Treaty Series 836

The United States of America and Germany desiring to promote the cause of justice, have resolved to conclude a treaty for the extradition of fugitives from justice, between the two countries, and have appointed for that purpose the following Plenipotentiaries:

The President of the United States of America:

The Ambassador of the United States of America in Berlin

Mr. Frederic Moseley Sackett,

The German Reichspräsident:

the Secretary of State of the Foreign Office

Dr. Bernhard W. von Bülow

and

the Privy Counsellor in the Ministry of Justice

Dr. Wolfgang Mettgenberg.

Who after having communicated to each other their respective full powers, found to be in good and due form, have agreed upon and concluded the following articles:

ARTICLE I

It is agreed that the Government of the United States and the Government of Germany shall, under conditions of reciprocity, upon requisition duly made as herein provided, deliver up to justice any person, who may be charged with, or may have been convicted of, any of the crimes or offenses specified in Article III of the present Treaty committed within the territorial jurisdiction of one of the High Contracting Parties, and who shall be found within the territories of the other; provided that such surrender shall take
