SUPPLEMENTARY AGREEMENT FOR MILITARY AND NAVAL COOPERATION BETWEEN THE GOVERNMENTS OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA AND OF CUBA

The Governments of the United States of America and of the Republic of Cuba concluded on September 7, 1942, an Agreement for Military and Naval Cooperation,² Article IV of which provides that the Governments of the United States of America and of the Republic of Cuba will act in mutual accord to adopt, from time to time, such supplementary revisions of said Agreement as may be necessary, or as may be indicated by experience, provided they are equally needed, to provide satisfactory procedure or regulations covering questions which may require additional clarification or improvement, including agreement as to details relative to the relationship and cooperation between the Armed Forces of the United States of America and of Cuba with respect to the execution of measures already agreed upon.

It being necessary for the most effective cooperation in the joint war effort to expand the Agreement for Military and Naval Cooperation dated September 7, 1942, the Governments of the United States of America and of the Republic of Cuba have agreed to enter into a Supplementary Agreement, and have for this purpose appointed as Plenipotentiaries:

His Excellency the President of the United States of America:

Spruille Braden, Ambassador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary of the United States of America;

His Excellency the President of the Republic of Cuba:

¹ Six months after entry into force of treaty of peace with Japan (3 UST 3169; TIAS 2490).
