The Secretary of State to the British Ambassador

DEPARTMENT OF STATE
WASHINGTON
Feb. 19, 1947

EXCELLENCY:

I have the honor to refer to the "Agreement on Settlement of Intergovernmental Claims", which was one of the specific Agreements between the British Government and the United States Government signed on March 27, 1946,¹ pursuant to the Joint Statement of December 6, 1945, Regarding Settlement for Lend-Lease, Reciprocal Aid, Surplus War Property, and Claims.² Paragraph 6 of the Agreement provides "that all financial claims whatsoever of one Government against the other which (a) arose out of lend-lease or reciprocal aid, or (b) otherwise arose on or after September 3, 1939 and prior to September 2, 1945 out of or incidental to the conduct of World War II, and which are not otherwise dealt with in the Agreements concluded this day, are hereby waived, and neither Government will hereafter raise or pursue any such claims against the other."

A question has been raised as to whether the expression "all financial claims whatsoever of one Government against the other which (a) arose out of lend-lease or reciprocal aid, or (b) otherwise arose on or after September 3, 1939 and prior to September 2, 1945 out of or incidental to the conduct of World War II" is properly interpreted as applying to claims submitted in accordance with the practice whereby one government espouses a claim of one of its nationals and presents it through diplomatic channels to another government. After consideration of the general purposes of the waiver of claims provision and of the discussions leading to the adoption of that pro-
