49 Stat. 3731; Executive Agreement Series 77

The British Ambassador to the Secretary of State

BRITISH EMBASSY,
Washington, D.C., March 28, 1935

No. 78

SIR,

I have the honour, under instructions from His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, to state that His Majesty's Government in the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland are prepared, in consideration of reciprocal treatment by the Government of the United States of America, to accord to United States nationals as defined below the following treatment in respect of air pilots' licences:—

2. (i) The territories in which the treatment specified in the subsequent paragraphs of this Note will be accorded (hereinafter referred to as the territories to which this Note applies) are: the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland and the territories specified in the schedule hereto, together with any territories to which the provisions of this Note may at any time be applicable by virtue of paragraph 4.

(ii) The term "air pilots' licences" as used in this Note means pilot licences for the piloting of civil aircraft.

(iii) For the purposes of this Note the term "United States nationals" means all citizens of the United States of America and other persons owing allegiance thereto belonging to any territory under the sovereignty, jurisdiction or authority of the United States to which your reply to this Note shall apply.

3. In the territories to which this Note applies air pilots' licences will be issued to United States nationals upon the same conditions as they are issued to British subjects and British protected persons, and such licences will entitle United States nationals to the same rights and privileges in the matter of air pilotage as British subjects.

4. (i) His Majesty's Government in the United Kingdom may at any time by means of a notification in writing addressed to the Government of the United States apply the provisions of this Note to all or any British
