

COOPERATIVE MAPPING

Agreement approved by Australia March 6, 1947, and by the United States April 4, 1947

Entered into force April 4, 1947

Department of State files

CO-OPERATIVE MAPPING AGREEMENT BETWEEN UNITED STATES AND THE COMMONWEALTH OF AUSTRALIA

SECTION I

Purpose

1. The purpose of this Agreement is to obtain, with minimum duplication of effort, aerial photography and other data for the preparation of maps of certain areas of mutual interest to the United States and the Commonwealth of Australia.

SECTION II

Work to be Undertaken by the United States

2. The United States proposes to undertake a program of aerial photography and ground control as follows:

a. Aerial Photography

(1) Trimetrogon photography for aeronautical charting of Papua and British New Guinea in accordance with specifications contained in Part 2, "Specifications for Aerial Photography",¹ General Headquarters, United States Army Forces, Pacific, 22 April 1946.

(2) Photography for large scale mapping in accordance with specifications contained in Section I, Part 1, "Specifications for Aerial Photography", General Headquarters, United States Army Forces, Pacific, 22 April 1946, of the following areas: Admiralty Islands, Bismarck Archipelago, Solomon Islands.

(3) Photography for cultural detail in accordance with specifications contained in Section II, Part 1, "Specifications for Aerial Photography",

¹ Specifications not printed.