International Acts Series 1692

AGREEMENT BETWEEN THE GOVERNMENT OF THE UNITED STATES AND THE GOVERNMENT OF AUSTRIA

"The Government of the United States of America and the Government of Austria,

"Considering the desire of the people of the United States of America to provide immediate assistance to the people of Austria, and

"Considering that the enactment of the Foreign Aid Act of 1947¹ by the United States of America (hereinafter referred to as the Act) provides the basis for such assistance to the people of Austria, have agreed as follows:

ARTICLE I

1. The Government of the United States of America will, subject to the provisions of the Act and of appropriation acts thereunder and of this Agreement, aid the people of Austria by making available such commodities (including storage, transportation, and shipping services related thereto) or by providing for the procurement thereof through credits under the control of the Government of the United States of America, to the Government of Austria or to any person, agency, or organization designated to act on behalf of the Government of Austria as may from time to time be requested by the Government of Austria and authorized by the Act and by the Government of the United States of America. This Agreement, however, implies no present or future obligation upon the Government of the United States of America to give assistance to the people of Austria, nor does it imply or guarantee the availability of any specific commodities or categories of commodities, nor shall it imply the payment by the Government of the United States of America for any storage, transportation, handling or shipping services within Austria.
