49 Stat. 3190; Treaty Series 888

The United States of America and the Republic of Estonia, being desirous of enlarging the list of crimes on account of which extradition may be granted under the Treaty concluded between the two countries on November 8, 1923,¹ with a view to the better administration of justice and the prevention of crime within their respective territories and jurisdictions, have resolved to conclude a supplementary Treaty for this purpose and have appointed as their plenipotentiaries, to wit:

The President of the United States of America; Cordell Hull, Secretary of State of the United States of America; and

The President of the Republic of Estonia; Mr. Charles Kuusik, Acting Consul General of the Republic of Estonia in the City of New York,

Who, after having communicated to each other their respective full powers, which were found to be in due and proper form, have agreed to and concluded the following articles:

ARTICLE I

The following crimes are added to the list of crimes numbered 1 to 25 in Article II of the said Treaty of November 8, 1923, on account of which extradition may be granted, that is to say:

26. Crimes and offenses against the bankruptcy laws.
