45 Stat. 2618; Treaty Series 764

The United States of America and the Republic of Honduras desirous of strengthening the bond of peace which happily prevails between them, by arrangements designed to promote friendly intercourse between their respective territories through provisions responsive to the spiritual, cultural, economic and commercial aspirations of the peoples thereof, have resolved to conclude a Treaty of Friendship, Commerce and Consular Rights and for that purpose have appointed as their plenipotentiaries:

The President of the United States of America, George T. Summerlin, Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary of the United States of America, and

The President of the Republic of Honduras, Doctor Fausto Dávila, Minister for Foreign Affairs of the Republic of Honduras,

Who, having communicated to each other their full powers found to be in due form, have agreed upon the following Articles:

ARTICLE I

The nationals of each of the High Contracting Parties shall be permitted to enter, travel and reside in the territories of the other; to exercise liberty of conscience and freedom of worship; to engage in professional, scientific, religious, philanthropic, manufacturing and commercial work of every kind
