For the purpose of definitely arranging a government exchange of one complete set each of American and German official publications, James B. Childs, Chief of the Division of Documents of the Library of Congress, and Bibliothekerat Dr. Jürgens, in charge of the Reichstauschstelle im Reichsministerium des Innern, met in the Reichstauschstelle on July 4, 1929, on the basis of the following:

1. The proposition of the Library of Congress, March 1927, which was made available to the Reichstauschstelle through a communication of March 16, 1927, from the German Embassy, and further transmitted to the Reichsministerium des Innern with the communication of April 12, 1927, BR Nr. 27/1092, as well as

2. A proposed arrangement for final settlement concerning this government exchange submitted to the Reichsministerium des Innern by the Reichstauschstelle with the communication of June 4, 1929, after the various points had already been cleared up for the most part by correspondence during the previous two years.

The undersigned¹ combined their propositions into a proposal for an agreement in both English and German, submitted as a supplement herewith.

The undersigned will place the proposal for this agreement before the competent authorities of their Governments for approval, whereupon the text of the agreement will after approval on both sides become effective.
